

Newsletter nr. 2

Dear exhibitor,

Temperatures fluctuate this summer, but registrations for the Vakbeurs Foodspecialiteiten are rising sharply. We have been busy with the preparations for a while, but we would also like to remind you of your own preparations. Make sure you order everything on time in the web shop of Expo Houten; www.expohouten-vakbeursfoodspecialiteiten.nl.

The floor plan is currently being finalized and you will receive a final confirmation next week with your stand number and the corresponding invoice for your participation in the trade fair.

The 30th edition of the Vakbeurs Foodspecialiteiten will be a special experience!

We would like to inform you on a number of important matters.

Activities and Novelties

You will shortly receive an e-mail in which we ask you to submit the activity form and, if desired, the novelty form. We would like to draw your attention to this, so that we can process everything on time before the date of delivery. The online activity form can be completed here and the novelty form here.

Advertising Lekkernijver and Lekkernijen

As usual, a special edition of Lekkernijver will be published just before the trade fair. This edition is always received very enthusiastically. The readers are looking forward to it and for exhibitors it's the perfect way to show the products they present at the trade fair.

The 6th edition of the popular consumer magazine Lekkernijen will be released during the trade fair. As an exhibitor you can advertise and reach many consumers.
